Williams was able to get back up and continue running at which time K9 Torres redirected and bit J. Coley. Pfc. Provost, Sgt. Faulkner, and Ofc. Cisco continued the foot pursuit of T. Williams and were able to catch up with T. Williams behind a residence, just west of Easy St. T. Williams layed in the prone position, on his stomach, and had one hand concealed under his body. T. Williams disregarded commands to show his hand at which time officers administered closed fist strikes to his upper torso until his hand could be pulled free. T. Williams was then handcuffed(double-locked) and escorted to the backseat of a patrol unit.
